It is stated in para 2 of p.u.c. that during the Great War the whole Depot was taken over by the Temperance Federation for use as "Blighty Tea Rooms" and the income retained by the Federation. No papers relating to this are traceable in office.

None in C.B.

There appears to be no objection to permission being granted to let out a portion of the building to Mr.Wiele (nothing is known about him in office), provided that the income derived is utilised for the benefit of the Society. The Collector recommends the proposal.

SIR,

Permission to let any part of the building occupied by the Bangalore Tract & Book Society - Your No.5738/292-1932 dated 29-8-1932 and No.6951 dated 17-10-32.

---:0:---

The Hon. Secretary, Tract & Book Society, has written to say that on account of trade depression the committee propose to let out a portion of the premises on hire and that they would send in a definite requisition for sanction when a suitable applicant is forthcoming.

The matter may lie over for the present.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

TRACT AND BOOK SOCIETY - RENTING OF A PORTION OF.

SIR,

In reply to your letter No.2090-D-34, dated the 10th May 1934, I am directed to say that the plot of land on which the Tract and Book Society Depot is located was granted to the Society on definite terms for a specific purpose; and the lease of two rooms of the Depot to a photographer for his professional and commercial work would be a contravention of the terms of the lease. The circumstances under which these conditions were relaxed during war time for the purpose of providing a tea room for troops were entirely different.

The Hon'ble the Resident therefore regrets that he is unable to grant the concession which has been asked for.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

for Close 6/6

SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT.
